

2026 REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

BUILDING OUR COMMUNITIES

MESSAGE TO OUR COMMUNITIES

Dear Neighbors, Partners, and Teammates,

At HII, our commitment to building a brighter future continues to guide our actions and inspire our people. Each year, HII volunteers step forward to support causes that strengthen our neighborhoods, protect our environment, and uplift families. In this report, you'll see the meaningful impact of those efforts and the values that drive our team.

In 2025, HII contributed more than $6 million to charitable organizations supporting education, veterans and military families, youth programs, environmental stewardship and more. Our volunteers continue to show up where they are needed most. Some examples include:

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING provided more than 200,000 meals to the local community, ensuring families across the Gulf Coast had access to nutritious food during times of need.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES employees planted 200 trees to support reforestation and enhance green spaces, and added 150 strawberry plants to an urban garden to promote food security and access to fresh produce for local communities.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING employees honored Earth Day by collecting more than 900 pounds of trash, helping restore and protect local waterways and green spaces.

HII CORPORATE employees adopted three families through the Newport News Department of Human Services, providing essential support and holiday joy to parents and kids across the city.

The volunteers represented in this report remind us that our collective engagement has real power — the power to clean our environment, feed our neighbors, and create opportunities for families to thrive. I am proud knowing that each person featured here is part of our HII team.

Thank you for your generosity, your time, and your unwavering commitment to service over the past year. If you are not listed in this Report to the Community, I hope you will consider joining us in 2026. Our communities are stronger because of you.

Chris Kastner
President & CEO, HII

MISSION

Our mission is to deliver the world's most powerful ships and all-domain solutions in service of the nation, creating the advantage for our customers to protect peace and freedom around the world.

VISION

Our vision is to be the global leader in advancing national security and driving sustained value and opportunity for our customers, employees, shareholders, communities and suppliers in accordance with our values.

VALUES:

Integrity, Respect, Responsibility, Safety, Performance and Engagement are the foundation of our work, guiding our actions and decisions to demonstrate the highest standards of professional and ethical behavior. Together, we are united by our mission in service of the success of our people, the security of our nation and the future of freedom around the world.

There was a windshield tour of the shipyard and visits to facilities such as the Welding School, the Trades Training Facility and The Apprentice School. The goal was to provide firsthand exposure to career opportunities at NNS for school administrators and instructors.

OUR

CHARITABLE INVESTMENTS

HII is America's largest shipbuilder, delivering the world's most powerful ships and all-domain mission technologies, including unmanned systems, to U.S. and allied defense customers. HII is the largest producer of unmanned underwater vehicles for the U.S. Navy and the world.

With a more than 140-year history of advancing U.S. national security, HII builds and integrates defense capabilities extending from the core fleet to C6ISR, AI/ML, EW and synthetic training. Headquartered in Virginia, HII's workforce is 44,000 strong.

EDUCATION

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING

Ingalls Shipbuilding awarded $96,000 in grants to 22 science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) projects and initiatives from schools and educational organizations in Mississippi and Alabama. This is the 16th year for the program, and Ingalls has awarded more than $1.5 million for STEM projects during that time.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING

Newport News Shipbuilding employees united behind the annual NNS School Tools Drive, collecting more than 34,000 essential school supplies for local students.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES

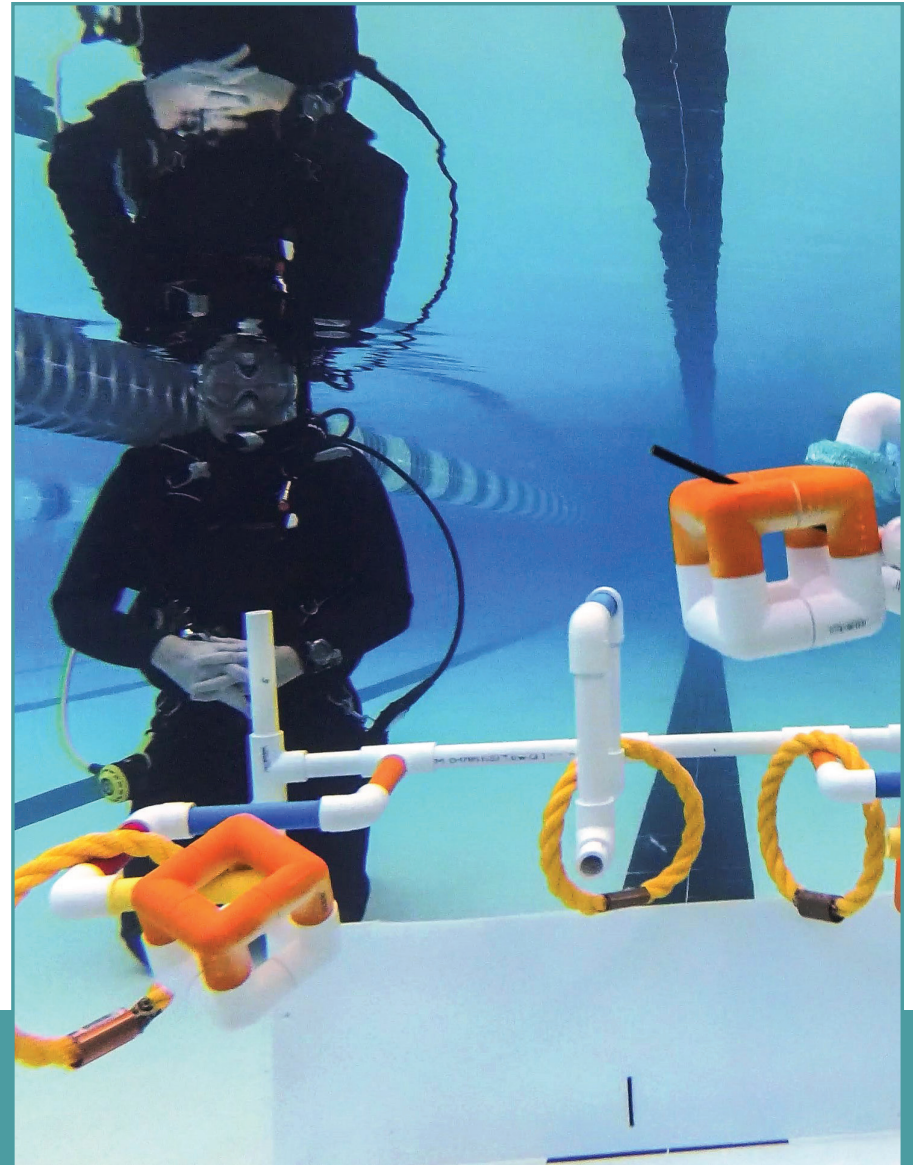

Mission Technologies joined the Corporate Partners Program at the University of Maryland's A. James Clark School of Engineering to strengthen collaboration and innovation. This partnership supports recruitment and internships, scholarships, student activities, competitions, awards, and conferences, benefiting students and faculty.

HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING

Ingalls Shipbuilding provided more than 200,000 meals to the local community and providing leadership among corporate partners to address the increasing need for food along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING

In 2025, more than 50 employees from Newport News Shipbuilding volunteered with Serve the City, an organization that mobilizes volunteers to meet practical needs, build meaningful relationships, and transform lives and neighborhoods across the Virginia Peninsula. Throughout the year, these shipbuilders had accumulated more than 700 hours of time validated across 273 events.

Ingalls Shipbuilding employees Alicia Davis and Jasmine Adams participate in Extra Table's March of the Mayors food-packing event, helping provide meals for local families.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES

Mission Technologies employees coordinated 28 volunteer events to strengthen health and human services across the communities we serve. Volunteers partnered with organizations such as Habitat for Humanity of Greater Dayton in Ohio to support two home builds, repainted a food pantry and clothing donation center in Macon, Georgia, and worked with United Way of Aiken — Project Vision in South Carolina to build and donate a home accessibility ramp.

HII CORPORATE

HII Corporate employees in Northern Virginia donated a total of $2,535 to the Capital Area Food Bank for distribution in the National Capitol Region as a part of the Spring Virtual Food Drive. The funds donated help to provide nutritious meals for vulnerable residents.

Frank Staigl and Gabe Greve volunteered for a Habitat for Humanity event in Miamisburg, Ohio, during HII Mission Technologies' annual Global Day of Caring.

"Three teams supported Habitat for Humanity of Greater Dayton," Steve Wagner, the team captain, said. "Over two dozen volunteers helped to provide a safe, affordable place to call home. The Habitat for Humanity program manager and regional director thanked our HII Team for all the hard work and our continued support across the Dayton Region."

ENVIRONMENT

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING

Nearly 40 Ingalls Shipbuilding employees spent the day in May of 2025 working at the Pascagoula River Audubon Center sprucing up for spring visitors. The team spent the day removing invasive species, repairing playground equipment, renovating the facility used as a Scouting Hut, laying palates of sod and planting trees and flowers.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING

Teams of Newport News Shipbuilding employees cleaned up areas around the shipyard and the Huntington Park beachfront in honor of Earth Day. A total of 129 volunteers collected over 900 pounds of trash during the annual event.

As part of the division's Earth Day commemoration, Newport News Shipbuilding employees placed markers on storm drains inside the shipyard to bring attention to the fact that they empty directly into the James River.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES

Across 10 events, Mission Technologies employees volunteered to remove more than 500 pounds of debris from streets, parks, and coastal waterways, and participated in stream purification activities to improve local water quality and ecosystem health. In addition to these efforts, volunteers planted 200 trees to support reforestation and enhance green spaces, and 150 strawberry plants in an urban garden to promote food security and access to fresh produce for local communities.

Levonne Young volunteered at the Hampton Roads Urban Agriculture in Virginia during HII Mission Technologies' Global Day of Caring.

"Our group had a great time planting about 200 strawberry plants on a sunny day in downtown Newport News," Bryant-Morgan, the team captain, said. "It's important and fulfilling to be out in the local community supporting organizations like HRUA that aim to reduce food insecurities via a community garden that provides space to educate and train Hampton Roads community members on how to sustainably grow their own food."

MILITARY & VETERANS

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING

In November, dozens of Ingalls Shipbuilding employees teamed up with USO to pack approximately 1,000 care packages for deployed service members. Care packages were packed in the shipyard cafeteria as part of the company's Veterans Day celebrations.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING

Newport News Shipbuilding sponsored an expeditionary facility dog, trained by Virginia Beach-based Mutts with a Mission, for USS Carl Vinson (CVN 70). The dog — a red fox Labrador retriever named Rudder — assists in the mental health care of sailors, sensing when a crew member is experiencing anxiety or is under pressure.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES

Mission Technologies partnered with Operation Homefront to support military families through its flagship programs — Holiday Meals for Military and Back-to-School Brigade. More than 50 employees and 12 U.S. Army Command and Control Support Agency service members volunteered at three events, assembling meal boxes and packing backpacks, ultimately supporting over 600 military families nationwide.

HOLIDAY GIVING

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING

In December, Ingalls Shipbuilding collected gifts for more than 100 Angel Tree Angels through the Salvation Army, hundreds of Toys for Tots gifts and for 60+ residents of Gulf Coast Center for Nonviolence. Additionally, employees donated non-perishable food items to support Back Bay Mission's food pantry.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING

During Newport News Shipbuilding's 2025 Holiday Food Drive, shipbuilders collected more than 19,500 pounds of food and $14,000 in monetary donations for the Virginia Peninsula Foodbank. Together, that translates into an incredible 58,795 meals for families across the community.

Ingalls Shipbuilding employees Ralph Cruthirds and Jennifer McClain load gifts donated during Ingalls Shipbuilding's annual Holiday Giving event, supporting Angel Tree, Toys for Tots and the Gulf Coast Center for Nonviolence.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES

Mission Technologies employees hosted food and toy drives benefiting families of students in Bremerton, Washington, and Newport News, Virginia, and contributed 1,133 pounds of food — equivalent to 389 meals — to local food banks and schools.

HII CORPORATE

HII Corporate employees adopted three families, each with three children, through the city of Newport News Department of Human Services program. Employees donated specific gifts requested by the families and cash that was used to buy items such as bus passes, grocery cards, bunk beds and other household needs.

Volunteers in HII's corporate office wrap gifts collected for families in need during the holiday season.

"The work that Newport News Shipbuilding does has far-reaching and ever-lasting significance and can literally impact people around the globe. The support our shipbuilders provide within our communities — from volunteering in local schools to donating blood to giving to food drives — creates an impact that makes a lasting difference as well. Thank you to everyone for their contributions to something bigger than themselves."

SARAH DAVIS

Sarah Davis exemplifies the very best of Ingalls through her care of our people and commitment to mission and purpose. Her consistent involvement and presence at company and community events demonstrate a level of dedication that goes above and beyond expectations.

Sarah has participated in every ship christening since joining Ingalls, regularly volunteers at Apprentice School graduations and Family Day. Her service extends far beyond these milestone events. She actively supports initiatives such as humane society pet food drives, holiday giving toy drives, the Moss Point School District supply drive, coastal cleanup efforts, Festival Hispano de Pascagoula, Pascagoula High School Fiesta Night and poster contest, Heart Walk, Ronald McDonald House with Legacy Builders, ACP Veteran Mentor programs, Feeding the Need and local 5K run/walks. Her sustained engagement across both company and community efforts reflects a commitment to service.

What sets Sarah apart is not just her attendance — it is her impact. She actively encourages others to participate, promotes events and inspires engagement across teams. She collaborates with colleagues across departments and actively participates in volunteer leadership positions.

Sarah's actions directly contribute to a stronger culture and a more connected workforce. She demonstrates leadership through service, strengthens employee engagement, supports community partnerships and represents our company with professionalism and heart.

For her outstanding dedication, leadership, and embodiment of Ingalls values, Sarah is highly deserving of this recognition.

"Service has been a guiding principle in my life for decades. No matter what role I've held, I've believed that leadership carries a responsibility to give back. Our company shares that belief. We actively support organizations and initiatives that strengthen our communities and provide critical resources — including assistance for our own employees during challenging times. I'm especially proud of our employees who volunteer their time and talents to make a difference. Their actions demonstrate that community isn't just something we talk about — it's something we live."

WILLIAM MCLAUGHLIN

Since 2005, William McLaughlin has been a driving force behind the Newport News Shipbuilding Holiday Food Drive. Inspired by a spirited contest in his department known as the "SPAM Award," William was swept up by enthusiasm and never looked back.

The momentum in NNS' Bldg. 600, where William works, began around 2002 when a group of shipbuilders launched a friendly competition. That contest quickly grew. Today, William pushes for building-wide participation. The building has earned a reputation as an island of generosity, often matching the rest of the shipyard's contributions combined.

Since 2007, William's department has contributed over 150,000 pounds of food and thousands of dollars.

"Each year, seeing the mountain of food collected is deeply rewarding," he said. "What moves me most are the quiet heroes — those individuals who consistently and anonymously go above and beyond."

William believes the NNS Gives campaigns empower shipbuilders to be good neighbors on a larger scale. "Almost none of us have ever, even on our most generous days, given anything that actually hurt to part with," he said. His advice? Think about that before you donate, then double it. "I bet it still won't hurt," he added, "but it will help someone more than you know."

The 2025 campaign in William's building generated more than 5,800 pounds of food and $5,255 in monetary donations, equaling a total of 20,590 meals for families in need.

“At Mission Technologies, our commitment extends beyond the work we do for our customers — it reaches into the communities we call home. Our employees bring the same innovation, determination and sense of purpose to their charitable efforts as they do to solving the world’s toughest challenges. Their generosity and compassion embody the spirit of Mission Technologies, and I’m incredibly proud of the difference they continue to make.”

Executive Vice President & President,
Mission Technologies

STEVEN M. WAGNER

Steven M. Wagner supports HII Mission Technologies' work at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio, and lives by the principles of servant leadership: prioritizing service to others and fostering the growth and well-being of team members and communities.

Last year, the Dayton site rallied for four volunteer events during Mission Technologies' Global Day of Caring. One team partnered with Miami Valley Meals, transforming donated food into meals for those facing food insecurity. Three teams joined Habitat for Humanity of Greater Dayton, installing siding and fixtures, hanging drywall and ceiling rafters at two build sites, and restocking inventory at the Habitat ReStore. Steven was among the more than two dozen volunteers who helped provide safe, affordable homes.

His commitment extends beyond these events. He serves as a volunteer IRS-certified tax preparer with the AARP Tax Foundation, offering free tax assistance to low-to-moderate income taxpayers. "There's nothing more rewarding than the hugs and handshakes from our senior citizens," he said. "Sometimes, they bake us cookies!"

Steven also hosted a holiday fund-raiser with a local running-gear store to support Shoes 4 the Shoeless, a nonprofit providing new gym shoes and gear to children in need across southwest Ohio.

"Volunteering is a great way to meet your neighbors, build teams, strengthen your community and make a new friend," he said. "The Team at the Dayton site is always first on-line with their time, resources and support."

“Our community engagement efforts have grown significantly in both presence and impact, and we are just getting started. We are deeply committed to serving our workforce through meaningful community investment and involvement that strengthens the places we call home. It is truly an honor to work on behalf of more than 11,000 Ingalls shipbuilders, and I am incredibly proud to partner alongside them as we expand our reach and deepen our impact together.”

“Every day at Newport News Shipbuilding, we are reminded that our work extends far beyond the ships we build. As a division of HII, we are proud to support the strength of our nation while also investing in the strength of our community. From advancing career and technical education and workforce development to partnering with local nonprofits, our commitment is rooted in the belief that when our community thrives, we all succeed.”

“At Mission Technologies, community impact grows from the collective dedication of our workforce and the partners who advance our mission alongside us. Across global sites, our teams apply their skills and commitment to initiatives that help strengthen the social and environmental fabric of the communities we serve. Through active engagement and purposeful collaboration, we are laying foundations for meaningful, lasting progress that will benefit future generations.”

JEFF JACKSON

Senior Director of Organizational Development,
Mission Technologies

Top: Newport News Shipbuilding volunteers joined in the celebration of the 22nd Habitat for Humanity home sponsored by the company.

Middle: Newport News Shipbuilding and HII had a combined 36 teams with 336 registered walkers for the 2025 Hampton Roads Heart Walk to raise awareness about heart health and support lifesaving research.

Bottom: HII Mission Technologies employees volunteered at Arcadia Farm in Alexandria, Virginia, during HII Mission Technologies' annual Global Day of Caring. Arcadia is a nonprofit organization that cultivates vibrant regional food systems that build the health of the region's land, food and communities — from the farm forward.
